DRIVE ON SEALS BY GOVERNMENT THIS SUMMER

SEATTLE, Wash., June 11.—Seal-skin coats—as many as can be made from about 30,000 skins—will be the objective this summer in the government's drive on its seal preserves on the Pribilof Islands, which lie in the Bering sea off Alaska.

Slaughter of the Pribilof seals will begin this year early in June and continue through the summer months. It was announced here recently. Last year 28,000 seals were taken and this year it is hoped to get 30,000.

Recently the U. S. S. Saturn of the navy department's transport service arrived here to load supplies for the annual summer campaign on the islands. The Saturn is taking to the Pribilofs eight expert furriers from a St. Louis firm which acts as the selling agent for the government.

SAYS LENINE IS MOST CHEERFUL MAN IN RUSSIA

REVAL, Estonia, June 11.—Nikolai Lenin, head of the Russian bolshevik government, has recently developed a liking for wolf-hunting. According to recent arrivals from Moscow, Lenin, in company with Vilenko, one of the red army leaders, has just returned from a wolf drive at Zakhidovo.

Those who know Lenin most intimately declare that despite the numerous crises through which he has had to lead the bolshevik regime, he is still perhaps the "most cheerful man in Russia."

He preserves his continual good humor by shutting himself closely from detailed work when in his office at the Kremlin, devoting his time to the big problems of government and to the preparation of speeches and pamphlets in which he advocates numerous changes from his old strict communist policy.

Between labor hours when in his office he reads novels and socialistic works by foreign authors in the original French, English and German, and also keeps in touch with his principal works on other subjects.

It is said that he continues to live simply in striking contrast to a number of minor bolshevik officials who occupy luxurious quarters. Lenin and his wife have only a few rooms.

NO DECISION CAN BE RENDERED IN TITULAR BATTLE

NEW YORK, June 11.—The third bout for the world's heavyweight championship under no decision rules at a limited number of rounds will be under way when Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier square off in the Jersey City ring on July 1.

The only previous title contests held under similar conditions were the Willard-Moran 16-round battle at New York March 25, 1916, and the Willard-Dempsey contest at Toledo, Ohio, July 4, 1919. The first bout went the limit, Willard gaining the popular verdict. At Toledo Dempsey knocked out his ponderous opponent in the third of a scheduled 12-round bout.

Modern ring history in the heavyweight division is considered to have begun when John L. Sullivan knocked out Paddy Ryan in nine rounds at Mississippi City, Mississippi, February 7, 1882, including that contest and the one in which Marvin Hart defeated Jack Root to obtain the title relinquished by Jim Jeffries, there have been 24 championship bouts. The longest was that in which John L. Sullivan knocked out Jake Kilrain in 75 rounds at Richburg, Mississippi, the shortest that in which Tommy Burns stopped Bill Squires in one round at Colma, Colorado, July 4, 1907.

By the average duration of these contests which is a trifle under 15 rounds, Dempsey and Carpentier, scheduled for only 12 sessions, will seem likely to go the prescribed limit. The length of the Sullivan-Kilrain duel, however, stretches this average and examination of the records shows that 11 of the 23 battles have stopped short of the 12-round mark, while the most recent championship fight, in New York last December, ended with the knockout of Bill Brennan by Dempsey in the twelfth round.

Persons who wager on an official result in the Jersey City bout can win or lose only in two events, a knockout or a disqualification on a foul. To make possible a clean-cut decision it has been suggested that Promoter Tex Rickard appoint three judges who shall sit at the ringside and announce a verdict after returning to New York following the bout.

SUGGESTS DUTY ON LOW-GRADE TIMBER

SYDNEY, N. S. W., June 9.—Suggestions have been made in Australia that American timber merchants are attempting to dump quantities of second-grade Oregon pine on the New Zealand market at extremely low prices. If this is allowed, local millers claim, conditions will be the same as they were in 1907 when local timber men were unable to market lower grades of local lumber and consequently numbers of workers thrown out of employment. Suggestions have been made that a duty be placed on lumber imported for building purposes.

PRINTING BY PHOTOGRAPHY IS THE LATEST

LONDON, June 11.—Suggestion that printing from type is likely to be superseded was made by William Gamble at the recent World's Congress of Printers held here in connection with the International Printing and Allied Trades exhibition. Mr. Gamble said that at least three inventors were trying to develop a photographic process to take the place of printing from type.

He predicted that the machines for printing by photographic process could hardly occupy more space than a typewriter nor be any more complicated.

He expressed the opinion that eventually the great printing presses in newspaper offices would give place to smaller, swift-running and comparatively noiseless machines which would turn out printed matter with almost the same facility as the moving picture operators reels off his film.

BIG DOUBLE BILL AT THE BUTLER TODAY

Here is the comedy sensation of the year, introducing Buster Keaton, king of comedy, who is going to reach the peaks of funmaking. Buster Keaton has graduated from vaudeville, where for years he was a member of the famous Three Keatons. He has graduated from doing supporting parts with Fatty Arbuckle. Mr. Arbuckle has nominated this nimble and talented young man as his legitimate successor in the field of short comedy subjects. That's what he thinks of Buster—who will be seen at the Butler today in his first two-reel comedy, "One Week," which is packed with so many brand new "gags" that it will keep you laughing for an hour after leaving the show. If you enjoy a good comedy, don't miss this one.

The other attraction on today's bill is Claire Whitney, in "Love, Honor and Obedience," telling the story of a New England girl who marries a wealthy church deacon to please her father, when she really loves a New York novelist, whose liberal views have created a scandal in her Puritanical community, from which the question arises whether a woman who has sworn to "love, honor and obey" her husband should bolt the door against him or whether she should seek her happiness where she feels there is true love.

Tomorrow, Mabel Normand in "What Happened to Rosa," and Eddie Polo in "King of the Circus," getting more interesting every week. Monday, "The Inside of the Cup," one of the big pictures.
